

Daily Democrat

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY HARNEY, HUGHES & CO.

—OFFICE—
South Side Green Street, two doors below the Customhouse.

MONDAY, OCT. 31, 1864.

NOTICE TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS
The Daily Democrat delivered by carriers throughout the city will hereafter be at the rate of twenty-five cents per week, including the Sunday paper.

Important Notice.
Owing to the increased expense of every article used in the printing business, and an advance price of twenty-five per cent. on the expense of composition, we are compelled to increase the cost of the Daily Democrat.
Hereafter the Daily, by mail, will be one dollar per month, or six dollars for six months, or ten dollars for a year, always in advance.

Important to News Dealers.
We understand that General Sherman has issued an order by which any person who desires to sell papers at the front, thus destroying the monopoly which has so long inconvenienced the army, and deprived it of a full supply of papers.

CITY NEWS.

Amusements.
Wood's Theatre.—At this popular place of amusement Miss Mary Mitchell closed a very successful engagement. To-night Mlle. Zola, the Cuban sophy, will make her first appearance this season in our city, on which occasion the great military drama of the French spy will be performed. Mlle Zola is given up by all critics to be the best dancer and pantomime on the stage, and being a favorite in our city, we have no doubt that she will meet with success. The performance to-night will close with the farce of the Dead Sister.

LOUISVILLE THEATRE.—This evening Miss Heron will appear in her famed role of Camille. Recently, at the Niblo Theatre, New York, she enacted this character for six nights, drawing larger audiences than had ever assembled in that theater. On Wednesday will be presented, for the first time here, a new play, by Miss Heron, entitled "The Mysteries of the Temple," recently performed in Boston for eighteen consecutive nights. It will be produced with new scenery, dresses and appon-tments.

MAGNIFICENT PRESENTS FOR EVERY BODY.—At the Cosmopolitan Gift Book Store, No. 210 Fourth street, the number of fortunes at last week was unprecedented since the opening of the house six months ago. Mr. Fay, of Boyle county, was the recipient of a silver ten-cent worth $50. Mr. J. W. Johnson, of Lexington, drew a dinner carter worth $10. Miss Abby McFarland, with a Family Bible, was the fortunate recipient of a gold hunting-case watch worth $75. B. Brooks, of Adams county, drew a bracelet worth $20. Lieut. B. W. B. W. drew an opera glass worth $15. These are but few of the many who have purchased a single book at this establishment and been made happy by the result of the investment. A more complete variety of books will scarcely be found in any book house in America than at the Cosmopolitan Gift Book Store.

ROBBERIES.—On Friday night some thief or thieves entered the grocery and dry goods store of Mr. Conrad Hiltz, on Breckinridge street, between Third and Fourth, and robbed him of $150 in money and about $300 worth of goods. The entrance was effected through the cellar. On the same night several other houses in the same vicinity were robbed of various amounts.

BARRACKS NO. 1.—Business was rather brisk at the barracks yesterday. Six hundred convolescents were sent to Nashville. Five deserters arrived from Bowlinggreen, sixteen from Indianapolis and three rebel prisoners from Bowlinggreen. One hundred and six convolescents arrived from various points.

The United States Quartermaster requested the contractor of the city railroads to push the road forward yesterday, and complete that portion of it between Second and Brook streets. The company endeavored to comply with the request, but they were unable to obtain hands.

The rumor that a fight had occurred on the corner of Hancock and Green streets night before last was the imagination of some chap who had whisky on the brain.

There will be a nice cotton party in the Masonic Temple to-night, for the benefit of a widow lady and her blind children.

Billy Pellford, the clever mail agent, has our thanks for Washington papers of yesterday.

See the advertisement of Mr. Henry D.
Stowe, the eminent photographer, in another column.

A tremendous drove of Uncle Sam's beavers were driven past our office yesterday.

Yesterday being Sunday, there was very little business done in military circles.

Two hundred drafted men arrived from Indianapolis yesterday.

A DASTARDLY MURDER.—On Saturday evening, about half past seven o'clock, Mr. Coffey, an old citizen of Nashville, was shot and killed by some cowardly scoundrel whilst sitting quietly in his house, on West Gay street, beyond McLemore's. The murderer's weapon was discovered through a window. Mr. Coffey's house is near other houses, but so suddenly and unexpectedly was the wicked deed perpetrated that no one saw or has any idea who did it. The murdered man was a carpenter by trade, and had for some time been employed at the Chattanooga depot.

A party of about seventeen guerrillas entered Flemingsburg, Kentucky, on Tuesday night and commenced their usual outrages and robberies. The citizens rallied and soon drove the rascals from the place minus their plunder.
In the fight two of the robbers were killed and two badly wounded. One of these killed was a man named Evans, a notorious chiseler.

LATEST FROM THE FRONT.—There can be little doubt of the fact that Hood's army was a day or two since, near the Tennessee river, but the rebel leader hesitates to attempt a crossing. The news comes through refugees, and is very contradictory and confused. A few days will doubtless throw some light on the subject.

On Tuesday night last a band of thieves robbed the telltale keeper near Miners of all the money he had. They also stole several horses in the neighborhood.

MOVEMENTS OF FORREST.—On Monday General Meredith left Paducah, and on his return on Wednesday, received dispatches from General Sherman, and from Columbus, stating that Forrest intended striking Paducah, and at the same time menacing Columbus. Scouts and deserters reported large numbers of rebels passing Dresden, Lexington, Shady Grove and McLeansville, at the latter place having supplies being accumulated, all within fifty miles of Paducah. Forrest was also known to have been at Jackson with several thousand men. Danger being imminent, Wednesday night the cavalry was safely withdrawn from Mayfield. The same night boot-less men were advised to pack up their stocks and places them aboard steamers, which were detained for that purpose.

On the 27th scouts reported a rebel force within sixteen miles of the city, since which time no intelligence of their movements has been received. Every business house is closed and the goods removed to a place of safety.
Business of all kinds is suspended, and every thing prepared to give Forrest a warm reception.

There is no danger but that General Meredith will be able to hold the place should the rebels have the temerity to attack him, which all believe he will do.

Before the headquarters is Shady Grove. He has eight regiments, three battalions, and a battery of Dahlgren guns. Orders were issued for a concentration of the forces on the Tennessee line, and prepare to march on Paducah. Forrest's Chalmers and Buford are in command.

Thursday a dash was made upon Johnson-ville. Sixty head of cattle were captured.

RETAILING.—Some time ago the bodies of Major Wilson and six men, captured at Tennison, Mo., were found about fifteen miles southwest from there, on the old State road, near Johnson farm. Major Wilson was shot through the body several times. One of the bodies was supposed to be that of an artillery bugler, from the trimmings on his jacket.
They were found by a man who was out giving errands, who found Major Wilson by papers found on his body.

General Rosecrans issued the following order of retaliation:
From testimony which cannot be doubted, the Commanding General learns that Major James Wilson, Third M. S. Cavalry, and six other men of his command, were taken prisoners of war, were given up by Major General Sterling Price to the guerrilla Tim Rovers for execution.

The Provost Marshal General of the Department will send a Major and six enlisted men of the rebel army in from the military prison at Anson, Ky., to be kept in solitary confinement until the fate of Major Wilson and his men is known.

The Provost Marshal General of the Department will send a Major and six enlisted men
of the rebel army in from the military prison at Anson, Ky., to be kept in solitary confinement until the fate of Major Wilson and
his men is known.

A woman named Ellen Ziegler lately drew herself from the window of a room in the rear of the old Hotel building, in Buckley's Alley, and fell to the ground. Persons called to the spot by the noise of the catastrophe found the body of the unfortunate woman on the ground, and upon proceeding to the room from which she leaped, discovered the bedclothes also burning. It is supposed that the fire must have been communicated to the bed while she slept, and that when aroused she was unable to find the door and so dashed herself, in bewilderment or despair, through the window.

BILL ANDERSON KILLED.—Brigadier General Crockett telegraphed from St. Joseph on the 28th, that Lieutenant Colonel C. H. Thirty-third E. M., with a detachment of that regiment, and some R. Y. county militia, had a fight with Bill Anderson on the day before, at Albany, Ray county. Anderson and seven of his men were killed. Four of our men were severely wounded—none killed.

Colonel Charles E. Phelps has been nominated by the unconditional Union party of the Third Congressional District of Maryland for Congress. Mr. Phelps' nomination completes the list of the Union candidates from Maryland. All the nominees are members of the present Congress, with the exception of Col. Phelps and Col. Holland, of the Fifth District.

There are several cases of small-pox in Providence, many of which have proved fatal.
One case that will doubtless prove fatal is of a girl ten years of age, who, through the representable neglect of a teacher, has been allowed to attend a public school without the certificate of vaccination required by the committee.

In the case of the prize Ella and Anne, Judge Sprague, of the United States Circuit Court at Boston, has decided that the prisoners of the Shenandoah, Daylight, Tawanna and Hogman to share in the prize money, had a right to the prize money, and the proceeds be divided to the Nippon and one-half to the United States.

Henry B. Middleton, the son of R. W.
Middleton, of Washington, and master armaments on board the United States gunboat Daniel Smith, died at Augusta, Ga., on the 29th of September, 1864, of disease contracted while a prisoner among the rebels, while on his way home for exchange.

The case of George L. Westworth, who was arrested for mail robbery at Salmon Falls, N. H., in August last, came up before the grand jury at Federal Hall on the 10th inst., and he was discharged, there being no evidence of his guilt.

Mr. P. McCollum, son of Brigadier General McCollum, has been appointed to superintend the various military railroads entering in Washington. Mr. McCollum has for some time most expertly directed the military railroad at Norfolk.

York city railroad car the other day. He was about seventy-one years of age.

THE MEMPHIS BULLETIN of the 27th says:
It is reported that the rebel leaders in West Tennessee are just at this time exceedingly active. They have established railroad and telegraphic communication between Corinth and Jackson. They are making a wholesale consignment of goods to be sent to the army gathering in boys of tender years and non to-ttering on the brink of the grave. They are at the same time sending their agents into every portion of West Tennessee outside the Federal lines to seize and appropriate for the use of the rebel army everything that can be made available for their use, such as horses, mules, cattle and hogs, with household goods, money and other valuables.

Owing to the storm last night, the proceedings in the case of the alleged election frauds, were postponed until this morning. The following is a brief summary of the proceedings. Douglas, one of the defendants, admitted that he had signed certain blanks with the name of C. G. Arthur, C. D. C., and no other, but he claimed that he was not in the service. He also denied the jurisdiction of the Court. The Judge Advocate claimed that the court had jurisdiction, and said that the offense was in violation of General Order No. 209. The Court decided that it had jurisdiction.

W. K. Wood, of West Chester, Ohio, New York, was sworn on part of the Government. He is agent of the Union company of his county, and he had his commission renewed while on a visit to Fort McHenry, and finally went to Mr. Ferry, the State agent, to receive his commission. Mr. Ferry, however, refused to issue a commission to him, and he was told that he was not in the service. The witness then detailed the operation of filling up the blanks, etc., and received other information, showing a systematic fraud while in Ferry's office. Two soldiers came and seized a power of attorney, and placed a Union flag on the wall, and a Democratic State ticket in envelope, but Ferry abstracted the Union and substituted a Democratic election ticket.

Wood then informed the Provost Marshal of the business, and a number of letters, etc., seized in Terry's office were exhibited. The letters are all confidential, and contain no admissions of fraud. The names of Peter Cogge U. Grandall, sheriff of Albany, and N. Newcomb, of Albany, frequently occurring in the letters. After an address by the Judge Advocate the case of Douglas was announced as closed, and the court cleared for the Commission to deliberate upon the first decision. The case arrived at an hour, but it goes to the President for approval before being made public. Mr. Newcomb, under oath, made the statement that he was commissioned by Governor Seymour to take votes in Baltimore and Washington. He saw Douglas, Wood and Ferry willing, and they were all sworn in as officers at Ferry's office. In some cases he saw officers put in at Douglas's request. He filed in dates, and of proof of authority, and at last, to Douglas had signed names, and Douglas made a statement in which he said that what he had done was foolishly done, and without any knowledge or idea of the consequences. He appealed to the court to view his case with leniency.

CAIRO, October 29. The steamer Belle St. Louis, from Memphis, had forty-four bags of cotton, and one of the clerks and twenty-five deck hands who had gone ashore for freight, was left when the boat pushed out into the river. The cotton was taken by the rebels, and the crew was killed by the rebels. The Memphis Bulletin of the 27th says: It is reported that the rebels in West Tennessee are exceedingly active. They have established railroad and telegraphic communication between their various strongholds, and are sending every person able to bear arms, including boys and old men. They are sending agents to every part of West Tennessee outside their lines and are taking stock of all kinds of household goods, money and everything that can be of service to them.

The rebel Governor Harris has been in consultation with Forrest and other rebel chiefs, and unless the Federal authorities prevent it, a secession rally will be held at the same point in West Tennessee as the one held at Paducah, and it is believed that the rebels will be able to hold the place permanently.

The Little Rock Democrat of the 17th says: The rebel Legislature of Arkansas met September 22. There were thirteen members in the Senate and forty in the House. J. F. Lowry was elected Speaker of the House. Governor Flanagan's message recommends the passage of a law giving soldiers to vote, and a secession rally will be held at the same point in West Tennessee as the one held at Paducah, and it is believed that the rebels will be able to hold the place permanently.

A. H. Garland was elected Senator to the rebel Congress over Albert Pike, and to a vacancy caused by the death of C. Mitchell. The Little Rock Democrat regards the election of Garland as a Unionist, and never a very strong rebel, over Albert Pike, a decided secessionist, as an evidence of the wavering of the rebel Government. Four hundred bales of cotton passed Cairo for Cincinnati this week.

BALTIMORE, October 29. Gov. Bradford has just proclaimed the new State constitution of Maryland. The friends of the measure are honoring the event by a display of bunting. The American has put out an immense flag, bearing the inscription, "Free Maryland."

The Governor's proclamation concludes as follows: WHEREAS, The results of said elections have been duly certified by the proper judges counting and casting up the votes so returned to me for and against, and including the soldiers' vote so returned, it doth appear that there were 20,174 ballots for the new constitution, and 22,992 against it, and the blank ballots reported as given against the constitution, but not counted, the persons offering said constitution to take the oath required by said constitution, and there being, therefore, of the aggregate vote cast, a majority in favor of the adoption of said constitution;

Now therefore, I, Augustus W. Bradford, Governor of Maryland, in pursuance of the authority so vested in me by said act of Assembly and constitution aforesaid, do hereby, by my proclamation, declare and make known that said constitution and form of government aforesaid have been adopted by a majority of the votes of the State, and that, in pursuance of the provisions therein contained, the same will go into effect as the proper course and form of government of the State, superseding the one now existing, on the first day of November next. Given under my hand and seal on the 29th day of October, 1862.

A. W. BRADFORD, Governor.

W. B. HALL, Secretary of State.

The steamer Governor Cronwell and Empire City, from New Orleans on the 22d, have arrived. The carriage manufactured by Wm. Cummings, of Jersey City, was burned last night, and Cummings's furniture was also destroyed. Loss of each at least $50,000.

On Thursday night the passengers on the N. Y. & H. A. railroad were attacked and robbed by a gang of ruffians from this city and Philadelphia while going to witness a prize fight last night. The Chief of Police of Jersey City learned of their return, and made arrangements to arrest them, and on hearing the city ruffians burst open the car doors, put down the brakes, and stopped CHATTANOOGA, October 29.

A special to the Gazette from Knoxville says that General Gilmore encountered the rebel General Vaughn at Morristown to-day and routed him, capturing five pieces of artillery and two hundred prisoners. The conductor identified most of them as passengers.

The extra session of the Alabama Legislature, called to provide for a more thorough defense of the State, adjourned without accomplishing anything.

The Mobile News says the only thing the Legislature attended to was increasing their own salaries for the approaching session. The Mobile Advertiser says the Legislature refused to do anything towards raising men for the support of the Confederate cause or defense of their own State.

The Sentinel of the 26th says it is necessary that the rebel States should be solidly united and declare separate negotiations for peace and reconstruction, and that nothing could be more fatal.

Governor Seymour has appointed a commission consisting of the Hon. Amos J. Parker, Hon. W. Allen, and Hon. W. Kelly, forthwith to proceed to Washington to inquire into the causes of the arrest of Colonel North, and other citizens of New York, and to take such action as may be necessary to speedily trial and vindication of the laws of the State, and at the same time to see that any attempt on the part of any one to prevent the soldiers from voting, or to defend them of their vote, or to coerce their action in voting, or to determine or alter the votes already cast by them.

The Commercial Washington special says that officers on Grant's staff wrote that the late movement was only a reconnaissance, and a point has been gained which will make the next movement one of the greatest importance, and it is hoped, of brilliant success.

It is now said by Southern papers that Beauregard will not have an active command in the army.

Bragg has been sent to Wilmington, whereupon a Commercial paper exclaims: "Good bye Wilmington."

Early's artillery, captured by Sheridan, was exhibited on Pennsylvania Avenue to-day.

There is nothing more from Grant than telegraphed to-day. A dispatch from the valley represent all quiet; guerrillas between Martinsburg and Winchester are becoming very bold.

The rebels are preparing for an extensive raid towards West Virginia.

The Herald's New Orleans special says that Gov. Allen has commenced conscripting negroes for the rebel army in several parishes. His cavalry are scouting the country for the purpose of enforcing the conscription. They carry away all able bodied negroes.

Under the rumor that Hancock lost 1,000 men in his movement, gold opened strong at 218 1/2 and soon advanced 231 1/2, and subsequently falling to 218 1/2.

The Commercial Washington special says the President is in the most cheerful mood in view of the military situation. It is thought there is good news in his possession which will speedily be made public.

The official word of the State is all in, and yet to be carried. We hope to be able to announce the result on Monday.

The Commissioners to receive the army vote assembled here to-day to receive instructions and documents previous to their departure for the army.

Richmond papers of the 29th contain the following: Speaking of Lee's army the Enquirer says: All that our army now needs is some determined commander to keep up their inspiration, now that they are called to deeds of valor.

Canadian politics continue to be a new subject for comment.

Over twenty Liverpool firms have failed. The Duke of Newcastle is dead.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29. There seems to be no doubt, from the occurring testimony, that Grant's recent move was intended only as a reconnaissance to obtain knowledge of the situation and strength of the rebel line.
